NOTES OF THE WEEK.

KONA STORM .- The storm which has lasted for ten days, commenced on Saturday the 21st, with a strong trade gale, which continued till Wednesday night. The strength of the gale may be judged from the fact | Miss Emma Rook .- Country Gentlemen. that the ship Post and brig Escape were both forced to return to port disabled. On Thursday the wind changed to the southward, blowing in squalls on Friday and Saturday, accompanied with heavy rains. | cart." The streams have been swollen for several days, damage to bridges. About forty feet of the roof of the stone church was blown away, and the rain has day the weather was more calm, and the trade wind will probably return to-day.

THE NEW CHURCH, on the corner of Fort and Beretania streets, which was dedicated last Sabbath morning, is one of the finest ornaments of our town. It is erected by the Fort Street congregation, under the by Government is unnecessary. The article conpastoral charge of Rev. J. D. Strong, and we are glad to learn is entirely paid for. The building has cost nearly $11,000, besides the cost of the land which was poorly able to sustain the loan.—S. F. Paper. $2000. It was built by Mr. C. H. Lewers, from designs made by him and Mr. R. A. S. Wood. The fornia mail, we received several numbers of the exterior is finished to resemble brown sand stone, and presents a more pleasant appearance than had it been in the more usual style, white. The interior of the with an adaptation to the business purposes of the church is plain but neat, well plastered, with a heavy | inhabitants of the islands-furnishing them with a cornice, which adds to the appearance. The gallery summary of foreign intelligence as well as a record of is small and intended only for the choir. The church has about 70 pews, and will comfortably seat about 450 persons. The basement, which is above ground, his sixth number that he already had 494 copies subwould have given the building a more pleasant elevation if the floor had been three feet below the surface. It is fitted up for a lecture room and pastor's study, and the whole arrangement appears to be very conve- business in the islands .- Boston Advertiser, Oct. 8. nient and airy. The sale of pews for one year, was well attended on Monday evening; the highest bids were $75 for the choice, and the whole sale amounted to $2500. We understand that the Rev. Mr. Strong will soon be installed as pastor, the delay having been owing to the unsettled state of the congregation, who now feel more established.

New Years Day-is now generally observed as a holiday, when ladies are expected to be prepared to receive calls from the gentlemen, who usually throw aside the quill and the tape for a day's relaxation .-The custom is a pleasant one, and would be still more agreeable were it extended to the Palace and the Governor's saloons, as is customary in Washington and the capitals of the different States in America.

A Fine occurred on Friday evening last, destroying a small native house on Fort street, above Tutui -no great loss, however. Several alarms had been given on previous nights, and the fire-men were all " wide awake."

The wreck of the Nauticon was torn entirely to pieces on Friday night last, and her ribs and timbers carried by the sea high on the reef, a long distance from where she grounded.

Our readers having business-transactions in San Francisco, are referred to a number of business cards of San Francisco merchants on the first and second pages of the Supplement.

BITTEN.—The son of Capt. Jernegan of the ship Eliza F. Muson, was bitten very severely yesterday by a Russian dog kept on board the vessel. The lad appeared to be playing with the dog, which attacked him most savagely, lacerating both his arms. The dog was not called off so soon as he would have been, is requested. had the seamen supposed it anything but a frolic.

The extra full sheet which we issue to-day is printed as a New Year's gift to our subscribers. We shall issue the Shipping List to go by each mail till May next. On our first page will be found an Almanac for 1857, with a registry of officers and societies. | ccrs' do, Counter do, Epsom Salts, Long Fluted Phials, Pina Goods, Manila Cordage. | 27-tf We are indebted to Mr. Fornander for the compilation of it. On the first page of the supplement will be found a summary of foreign news; on the second page, the coronation of the Czar; 3rd page, agricultural miscellany, and on the fourth page, an account of the monster steam ship building in England.

The cruise of the Havannah did not result in any discoveries of importance at Bird Island, except that it is a most barren, uninviting and worthless rock, with searcely any verdure on it. It is surrounded with steep cliffs, against which the surf breaks wildly, making it impossible to effect a landing in the rough weather during which the H. visited it. In calm weather, it is probable that a landing might be effected.

Mr. Editor :- Through the columns of your paper allow me to state that, after conversing with Rev. J. D. Strong, I am most happy to exonerate him from intentional discourtesy towards me, in regard to the late dedication of Fort street church.

Yours truly, S. C. DAMON. Dec. 31, 1856.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATER.—On Monday evening last, Miss Sarah Graves took a benefit. The house was well filled, and the performances gave general satisfaction. On Tallor's Establishment. Friday evening Mr. Wilder takes his farewell benefit, on which occasion he offers the beautiful play of "Ingomar," and the comic drama of "The Toodles." Mr. W. has labored hard and successfully to please the public during his stay among us, and no doubt he will be substantially rewarded on the night of his benefit.

CIRCUS .- Owing to the unfavorable weather during the past week, Messrs. Rowe & Co. have only been able to give one entertainment. To-day they give two performances, the first commencing at two o'clock P. M., (on which occasion the officers and crews of the men-of-war will be present) and the other at the usual hour in the evening. On Saturday night Mr. J. A. Rowe's complimentary benefit takes place, for which occasion the most attractive bill of the season is offered.

What others say of us. It may appear to be partaking of vanity for us to Coats Cloaks, and Pants of different styles. print what others may have to say about us; but it should be recollected that it is a printer's privilege, conceded to him wi'hout dispute, all over the world, that he can boast of his paper and publications all he chooses, and not be at all vain in so doing! This being understood by way of preface, we quote a few of the numerous notices that we have lately seen in our exchanges (of which we receive weekly about 100.) and would merely add that if we published the half of the testimonials received in letters at home and abroad, we should have but little space left for

THE "PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER."-We nearly to a freshet point, though we have heard of no are glad to find that the enterprise of our friend Whitney in publishing a commercial newspaper at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, is generously sustained. It is only a few months since the first number was done considerable damage to the interior of the build- issued, and already an enlargement has been found ing. Trees in various parts of the town have been | necessary in order to accommodate its numerous adtorn up and many native huts blown down. Yester- vertising patrons, and to afford room for tabular statements and reports concerning the Whale Fishery. It is published weekly at $6 per annum. Subscriptions will be received at this office .- N. B. Shipping

The Commercial Advertiser, in an elaborate artiticle, discusses the propriety of a loan, and by a series of statistical tables shows that the loan required cludes by asking if it is politic then that the nation should be plunged into debt, when we have so poor reasons to give why the debt is incurred and are so

FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS .- By the last Cali-Pacific Commercial Advertiser, a newly established weekly journal, published at Honolulu. It is a very neatly printed paper, and intelligently conducted, local events for their use, and for transmission to Eastern and Oregon Lumber, suitable for building purposes, their friends abroad. The subscription price is six dollars a year. The publisher announces in scribed for, and that there are subscribers in all the islands, including about 75 native inhabitants. The predominance of advertisements and shipping intelligence in the paper are indicative of an extensive
